

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.
Office—East side Third Street, between Market and Jefferson.

DEATH OF AN EMINENT PREACHER.—The venerable Walter Scott, an eminent preacher of the Christian Church, recently deceased, after a brief illness, at Mayfield, Ky. At the time of his death he had considerably passed three score and ten, although up to the period of his fatal illness, he was remarkably hale and active, and in almost full possession of his remarkable intellectual faculties. He was almost as widely known in the West as his great compeer in the work of reformation—Alexander Campbell, of Bethany. He possessed rare powers of mind and great erudition, and as a pulpit orator, in the meridian of life, he was regarded as second to none in either persuasive or argumentative eloquence. As an author, on sacred themes, he was also eminent, possessing great power of analysis and exquisite descriptive talent. At times, especially after age had somewhat impaired his native strength, he was somewhat visionary, but his contemporaries always confessed and admired his remarkable power. His last work, which enjoys very favorable consideration, especially among the members of the denomination in which he was so long an earnest laborer, is entitled "The Messiahship, or the Great Demonstration"—a work which develops his great analytic power, together with some of the objectionable peculiarities of his mind. Mr. Scott was a native of Scotland, and we believe, was a graduate of the University of Edinburgh.

Dan Rice is Coming.
We beg to remind the boys that Dan Rice is coming to town. It is no longer the one-horse circus of other days, but is now the great show, embracing everything that is novel and unique in such an exhibition. Dan Rice always is an attraction of himself, and surrounded, as he now is, with star performers and splendid attractions, his exhibition must be a decided success.

CITY COURT.—John F. Frank, stabbing Charles Haug with intent to kill; was held to bail in $200 to answer.

Thos. Snyder, passing counterfeit money; was held over in the amount of $300 to answer a charge of felony.

Mike Congrove, for detroying property of Ed. McHugh was held to bail in $200 for three months; sent to work-house.

Jas Adams was before His Honor for indecent exposure of his person; discharged.

Many Hays, for drunkenness, was sent to the Cave for two months in default of $100 bail.

Fras. Aken, cruelly beating a male; held to bail in $100 to answer a misdemeanor.

Margaret Harrington had a peace warrant vs. Margaret Murray; dismissed at the parties' cost.

J. E. Nolen, alias J. E. W. Nolen, suspected felon; sent to the workhouse for three months in default of bail in the sum of $200.

George Smith, a lad about fourteen years of age, who is a very bad boy and cannot be controlled by his mother, and steals for a living, was sent to the workhouse for six months.

Fred. Ries, embezzling various articles from G. W. Anderson & Co., his employers, amounting to $420; held to bail in $100 to answer a charge of petit larceny.

DELPH GUARDS ATTENTION.—The members of the corps lately formed at Parent's carpenter shop (Capt. Dillard's) will meet on Thursday evening at the Ninth-street Tobacco Warehouse. Let every member attend, and all who desire to enroll themselves. Officers will not be elected until the company is full.

THE COMPANY OF THE HOME GUARD alluded to in the News of yesterday, is Company A, Capt. Arthur Peter. They number one hundred, and are being well drilled, and are armed and equipped ready for any call that the Mayor may make upon them.

Governor Magoffin and Hon. J. J. Crittenden have gone to Cincinnati to confer with the Governors of Ohio and Indiana upon the aspect of public affairs.

COMPANY D, ATTENTION.—Read advertisement in another column. Every member is requested to be present at the meeting Thursday evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. Their quarters are at Concert Hall, Fifth street, opposite Court Place.

PIKE IN THE COUNTRY.—A negro cabin on Walker Taylor's farm was burned down on Tuesday night, and two negroes belonging to him were burned to death. We did not learn whether it was the result of accident or the work of an incendiary.

Gov. Crittenden and Gov. Magoffin went to Cincinnati on Tuesday, where they will meet Governors Morton and Dennison, of Indiana and Ohio, to consult upon measures to promote peace.

The people of Jeffersonville, last evening, held ward meetings, to organize Home Guards.

Col. G. R. Hodge has been appointed Paymaster of the Kentucky State Guard.

At a meeting of citizens, held at Bell's carpenter shop on the evening of the 30th ult., a company was organized named the Home Defenders by the election of the following named officers, viz: Dr. John R. Pirtle, Captain; Milton Callahan, First Lieutenant; W. Drysdale, Second Lieutenant; S. S. Moore, Third Lieutenant.

The Ohio Legislature will probably adjourn Monday.

A Union flag will be raised to-day, the 2d, at three o'clock, at the corner of Clay and Fulton streets. Speeches will be made by Messrs. Wolfe, Rousseau and others. The citizens of Indiana, opposite, are invited to attend.

Capt. Archer sent a dispatch to this city stating that the Commercial passed Columbus yesterday morning, hence for Memphis. The dispatch also says steamboats have no difficulty in passing Cairo or elsewhere.

HURLEY'S QUICK YEAST, FOR MAKING LIGHT ROLLS, BISCUITS, CAKES, PUFFS AND PASTRY.—Hurley's quick yeast is doubtless the best now in use. Persons using it in baking need never fear that loathsome disease dyspepsia, so often brought on by eating heavy, unhealthy bread. The Doctor manufactures on Green street, a few doors above Seventh, where all orders will be promptly attended to.

TARGET SHOOTING.

The Swiss Sharp Shooters had a target shooting yesterday at Capt. Knapp's garden.

The city last night was remarkably quiet; not a single arrest had been made up to twelve o'clock.

Captain Corbett and Clerk Bell, who described the steamer C. E. Hillman, at Bird's Point, a few days since, were at Columbus, Ky., at last account, on their way to Nashville.

The troops at Cairo that seized the Hillman, delivered her cargo in good order, excepting such as they consider contraband, which they refuse to give up. The Hillman is now on her way to Nashville.

UNION MEETING.—There was a Union meeting at Schwind's Exchange last night. The Hon. Lovell H. Rousseau, C. Pennebaker, Esq., and others, addressed the meeting. The people up town are loyal to the Union.

A chap named Bromgoolle, a native of Tennessee, living at Dover Hill, Martin county, Ind., having professed a thousand men to Jeff. Davis, was compelled to read the letter in reply out, and was then mobbed from the town.

Secure seats for Mrs. Dixon's benefit.

The University Cadets, Captain Vetter, a fine company organized among the students of the Louisville High School, were out on parade yesterday. It was a fine display, and the drill was very creditable indeed.

ALL RIGHT AT CAIRO.—Our friend, Senator Johnson, of Paducah, has sent a protest to Lincoln, against having troops stationed at Cairo. Of course, Lincoln will withdraw them forthwith; perhaps the troops will disperse in advance of any order. Our friend ought not to be partial in the good work. He ought to send a protest to Arkansas, against firing at unarmed boats and killing innocent men. He ought, also, to send a loud protest to Jeff Davis, against levying black mail on our Mississippi trade. It is wrong when one undertakes great things to do them by halves.

A WISCONSIN COMPANY.—The Judges of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin have enlisted in a new military company, the organization of which was begun last Saturday. Chief Justice Dixon heads the list, and will probably take command of the company. The list comprises, besides the Judges, the Secretary of State, Treasurer, Bank Comptroller, and many of the most prominent citizens of the capital.

Scallan and Dawson—Friday night.

The Sheriff and posse had quite a time yesterday, says the Evansville Journal of Tuesday, in serving an attachment on the purchaser of the Masonic Gem. It seems that he was formerly commander of the Julia Dean, and while on that boat, contracted debts amounting to about $700 with Captain O'Reilly, of this city, who has made several unsuccessful attempts to secure the payment of the money. Captain O'Reilly hearing of this transfer of the Gem to the present owner, immediately took steps to secure his money. But it seems that the purchaser of the boat was not behind time in hearing of the movement, for when the Sheriff's posse arrived at the levee to take possession of her, they found the Gem cut loose from the shore, and anchored out in the river. They immediately procured a yawl and went to the boat, but the Captain was there with a handspike to keep off the intruders. The officers, however, secured the end of the line, and taking it to the shore, the crowd collected there took hold, and drew the boat to the bank, where she was secured and a watch set over her.

There was less demand for provisions yesterday, and the market was comparatively quiet without any change in prices. The receipts of bulk pork have been very large for the past three days, and the supply of all kinds of meats is now ample for any demand that may reasonably be anticipated. 10,000 sugar cured canned hams sold at 10¢ packed.

Superfine flour was readily taken at $4 75, and we heard of several sales, amounting to 500 or 600 barrels, at that price; common extra and fancy family brands range from $6 to $7, with an active home demand. The stock here is not large, but we believe it to be ample for home purposes. Outside of provisions there is very little doing in this market, and with the exception of 500 barrels of No. 2 rosin, at $1 75 cash, we have no sales to report.

The following citizens constituted the Committee selected by the Mayor to examine into and report the amount of provisions now in the city of Louisville: First ward—Dr. E. D. Weatherford; Second ward—Hugh Hays; Third ward—James S. Lithgow; Fourth ward—Maj. Throckmorton; Fifth ward—S. Watkins; Sixth ward—Jas. Traub; Seventh ward—A. Graham; Eighth ward—R. P. Lighthorn; Ninth ward—Louis Rehm; Tenth ward—Daniel McCollough.

After a thorough examination, the Committee passed the following resolution: Resolved, That Messrs. Jas. S. Lithgow, And. Graham, R. P. Lighthorn and S. Watkins be a Committee to report to the Mayor as accurate a statement as possible of the quantity of provisions in this market.

Whereupon the Committee made the following report: Hon. J. M. Delph, Mayor: Below we hand you as accurate a statement of the stock of provisions in this market as we can make:

Of pork in barrels: 27,000
Shoulders: 1,000,000 lbs.
Hams: 1,000,000 lbs.
Sides: 1,000,000 lbs.
Showing a small excess in meat pork—an excess of about 1,000,000 lbs. shoulders, and of about 1,000,000 lbs. excess of hams, and a diminution of about 1,000,000 lbs. sides, compared with the stock in this market the same time last year.

Of lard there is a large increase over last year, the stock being 2,700,000 lbs. Of flour there is about the usual stock—say 10,000 bbls, which is being daily increased.

We have good authority in saying that there are large lots of bacon in the southern part of this State, which are being offered for sale in this market.

From present appearances we believe that within a short time we will be receiving wheat from the southern portion of this State and Tennessee by the Nashville Railroad.

Within two months the wheat in this and adjoining States will be harvested, the prospect of the crops being larger this year than for several years past.

In addition, the number of live stock arriving daily is very large, which is sold on foot at low prices.

From the foregoing we have no hesitation in saying that the stocks of all kind of provisions is amply sufficient for the trade and home consumption of the city.

JAMES S. LITHGOW,
R. P. LIGHTHORN,
S. WATKINS,
A. A. HARVEY, President,
JAS. F. GANDEL, Secretary.

The Ohio Legislature will probably adjourn Monday.

A Union flag will be raised to-day, the 2d, at three o'clock, at the corner of Clay and Fulton streets. Speeches will be made by Messrs. Wolfe, Rousseau and others. The citizens of Indiana, opposite, are invited to attend.

Mrs. Dixon's benefit—Friday night.

JEFFERSON HOME GUARDS.—There will be a business meeting of this company tonight at Apollo Hall, corner of First and Jefferson streets. It is highly important that every member of the company should attend punctually at eight o'clock, as business of great importance will be before it, and arrangements will be made to commence drill at once.

RALLY, RALLY!—There will be a meeting at the Woodland Garden, this evening, at eight o'clock. Mr. Speed and others will speak. A full attendance is requested. There will also be a speaking at the corner of Twelfth and Main, this evening, at eight o'clock. Messrs. L. H. Rousseau, Pennebaker, and others, will address the meeting.

A company of Home Guards, numbering sixty-two men, rank and file, was formed in Memphis, Clark county, Indiana, last week. A pole 100 feet high was raised, and the stars and stripes unfurled to the breeze. A rousing Union meeting was held at night. The Star-Spangled Banner and Red, White and Blue were sung by the choir, and patriotic speeches made by A. P. Jackson and J. M. Gwin.

Mrs. Dixon's benefit.—Mrs. Dixon, the very clever soprano of the theater, takes her first benefit this season on Friday night. As this lady enjoys a most enviable and universal popularity, we have no doubt that she will have the pleasure of appearing before a crowded house on the occasion.

The bill is not yet published, but we have no doubt that it will be a highly attractive one. We hope the lady will have fair weather, and the rest will take care of itself.

ISLAND HOME GUARDS.—A meeting was held on April 20, 1861, in Shippingport, for the purpose of forming a company of riflemen, to be called the Island Home Guards, to defend and protect our homes and the homes of our fellow citizens of Louisville.

Mr. E. Lockhart was called to the chair, and H. S. Belknap appointed secretary. The following officers were elected: John M. Huston, Captain; James B. Napier, 1st Lieutenant; Melvin Bohrer, 2d Lieutenant; Alfred Neely, 3d Lieutenant; and Wm. L. Tuell, Orderly Sergeant.

Are you going to Mrs. Dixon's benefit?

SPEAKING AT LEBANON.—Judge Bullock made a Union speech at Lebanon on Monday. The Central Kentuckian says of the speaking: "Judge Bullock made one of the most effective speeches in our town, that has been made here for many a day, in behalf of the Union. Would to Heaven that the country possessed more such patriots as Judge Bullock. His fervid eloquence and patriotic appeals touched the hearts of many of those who have hitherto sympathized with the disunionists, and caused them to reflect upon the awful consequences of Kentucky's seceding from the Union. The people have been made to consider the matter in its proper light. Judge Bullock made no appeals to the passions or prejudices of his hearers, but addressed himself to their judgment and patriotism."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—At a target shooting yesterday, at Captain Knapp's garden, a man named Ackermann was accidentally shot and killed by a man by the name of Neuschwander. The circumstances, as near as we could gather them, were as follows: A company were shooting at a target, and Mr. Ackermann was attending to the target, calling out the shots, and would then drop into a hole that was dug behind the target, for the purpose of screening him from the shots. When the last man before Neuschwander shot, he called out the distance from the center, and fell back into the hole, as stated. Mr. Neuschwander's gun came to a stop, but was rather long in taking sight, when Ackermann raised up to see what was the matter, when the gun went off, the ball entering Ackermann's head above the right eye, killing him almost instantly. Neuschwander and Ackermann, we learn, were relatives.

THEATER—OUR IRISH COUSIN AND A KISS IN THE DARK.—The two comedies now playing at our theater, and the very excellent bills presented, should draw a crowd nightly, and in more favorable times would scarcely fail to do so. At present, when every species of business is prostrate, the attendance at the theater is, comparatively speaking, very good. The comedy of Bob Nettles was admirably performed last night, our friend Scallan excelling himself in his very funny impersonation of the part of Wadlow. The character part of Tourbillon received full justice at the hands of Mr. Dawson. The latter gentleman gave us a very fine specimen of low comedy, as always Tom Tapes in the farce of Sketches in India. We are gratified in stating that Scallan positively refused to be "buried alive" last night, and consequently will be fought again at the theater to-night, in Brougham's fine comedy of Our Irish Cousin. In this play, which is one of the best of its very modern comedies, together with the farce of A Kiss in the Dark, Mr. Dawson as Pettibone, makes up the programme for to-night.

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

MAHOMMEDANISM.—The pastor of a church, who is a Mahomedan, has lately gone to South Carolina to enlist in the Confederate army, in his earnest and Christian-like endeavor to console the weeping friends left behind, and to assure them that, if their kindred who had gone to the "Holy War" should fall in the field of battle, they would fall in a most glorious and most righteous cause; and, beyond doubt, their disembodied spirits, like that of the martyr Stephen, would immediately ascend to heaven, and in the enjoyment of peace and bliss eternal, forever rest in Abraham's bosom!

INQUEST No. 274.—Held at the residence of Capt. Knapp, near the city, over the body of Jacob Ackermann, aged 25 years, a native of Germany and citizen of this city.

Verdict—"Came to his death accidentally, from a gun shot wound through the head, at the hands of Samuel Neuschwander, between four and five o'clock, on the evening of the 1st inst., at the place above named."

Mrs. Dixon and Jennie Hight as the "Rival Pages."

South Carolina to Massachusetts. The following document (says the Boston Traveller), was received at this office by mail, this morning. The envelope bore the post mark of Charleston, S. C., and we therefore have no doubt that it is genuine:

To the Editors of the Boston Traveller: Gentlemen—On behalf of the South Carolina Volunteers, I am desirous to request you, Andrew of Massachusetts, through you, that the military contingent of our State be sent to South Carolina. In making this request, I assure you I but express the wish of every man, woman and child in our State. We number about 10,000 men, well armed and accoutred, and anxious for your section to give us a meeting. Do not, however, send them in the fleet that appeared off Charleston harbor during the bombardment of Fort Sumpter, for fear their timidity will interfere with their landing. Send all Massachusetts men—none from Pennsylvania, for the regiment of our State flanked at Cerro Gordo; nor from New York, for at Churubusco, (although they claimed and received the right from the Palmetto Regiment), for at the first fire the gallant New Yorkers fell back, and hid behind a barn; nor from Indiana—for at Palo Alto the noble regiment from that State fell in inglorious confusion. Send your Sumpter men, your Wilemoyne men, and a host of similar notables, and we pledge our honors, our lives, and all that we hold sacred, that some others but the Palmetto boys shall interfere with them. We want them exclusively for our own use.

This request is made in good faith, and on signifying your acceptance of our offer, every arrangement will be made to give you a safe passport to our shores.

ON BEHALF OF THE S. C. VOLUNTEERS.

"Brown" will be at Mrs. Dixon's benefit.

Grocery dealers and families in want of excellent groceries and home-keeping articles, will remember that Mr. C. C. Spencer sells this morning the entire stock of Messrs. Osborne & Co., at their store on Third street, between Market and Jefferson. The stock is of the very finest quality, and unsurpassed by any other establishment in our city.

FOR SALE.—One hundred pairs red and gray military blankets from $2 00 to $4 00 per pair, at S. BARKER & CO., 317 Fourth street, Louisville, Ky.

ON account of the departure of owners, Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co. will sell, this morning at 10 o'clock, a variety of second-hand furniture in good order; also a choice lot of new furniture and parlor and chamber chairs. At 12 o'clock precisely, two top buggies and rockaways with harness, will be sold in new and perfect order.

McLean's Strengthening Cordial is receiving the unanimous recommendation of the Press, not only at St. Louis, but all over the country. This remedy is evidently of its efficacy, without giving it a trial. Once more we warmly recommend this remedy as a superior tonic and alterative.

DRY GOODS AT COST.—S. Barker & Co., 317 Fourth street, Louisville, Kentucky, have determined to sell off their stock of seasonable dry goods at cost, and many of them less than cost. The most of our goods have been bought within the last thirty days, at fifty per cent. less than the same qualities were bought earlier in the season, and must and will be sold at same price. Our stock is large and our assortment is complete, together with the exceedingly low price at which every article will be sold, offers greater inducements than ever before offered in this city.

Report of Superintendent L. M. Hospital for April, 1861.

Falmers Vegetable Cosmetic Lotion.

EVERYBODY CAN HAVE A NEW PAIR OF GAITERS.

Times are Hard.

MERWIN & GALE

ATTENTION, Company D, Home Guard!

EVERYBODY CAN HAVE A NEW PAIR OF GAITERS.

Times are Hard.

MERWIN & GALE

ATTENTION, Company D, Home Guard!

EVERYBODY CAN HAVE A NEW PAIR OF GAITERS.

Times are Hard.</

